

McKinley Community School Title 1 Policy

McKinley Community School adopts this Parent Involvement Policy in order to implement the following statutory requirements of the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA):

McKinley Community School will:

- Jointly develop with parents and distribute to parents of participating children, a Parental Involvement Policy that the school and parents of participating children agree on.
- Notify parents about the Parental Involvement Policy in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, will distribute this policy to parents in a language the parents can understand.
- Make the Involvement Policy available to the local community.
- Periodically update the Parental Involvement Policy to meet the changing needs of parents and the school.
- Adopt the school-parent compact as a component of its Parental Involvement Policy.

McKinley Community School agrees to be governed by the following statutory definition of parental involvement, and will carry out programs, activities and procedures in accordance with this definition:

Parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring—

(A) Parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning;

(B) Parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;

(C) that parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child;

(D) the carrying out of other activities, such as those described in section 1118 of the ESEA.

 - Meetings will be held at various and convenient times to encourage parents to attend. Parents will be notified about meetings through school memos, newsletters, the web page, and the automated phone system.

Prepare·Empower·Inspire

McKinley Community School will hold a flexible number of meetings at varying times, and may provide transportation, child care, and/or home visits, paid for with Title I funding as long as these services relate to parental involvement:

To encourage parents to attend these meetings, the school will offer training to parents to improve student success and achievement. In situations that prevent parents from coming to the school for meetings, school personnel may make home visits or arrange to meet the parents at a mutually convenient time off campus.

McKinley Community School will provide information about Title I programs to parents of participating children in a timely manner through such means as the automated phone system, memos, newsletters, and the web page.

School will provide parents of participating children with a description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet through:

- the annual Title I parent meeting
 - regular parent/teacher conferences
 - Title I meetings and Family (Curriculum) Nights throughout the year
- (a) If requested by parents, McKinley Community School will provide parents of participating children opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children, and respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible:
- through prearranged meetings with the Title I Director
 - through meetings with the student's teacher which may include the Title I Director, the principal, and other staff as appropriate
- (b) School will submit to the district any parent comments if the school wide plan under section (1114)(b)(2) is not satisfactory to parents of participating children:
- Parents may submit comments in writing regarding the school wide plan to their child's teacher, the Title I Director, or the principal
